

REPORT ON WORKSHOP ON ROBOTRICKS

Two days national workshop ROBOTRICKS on was organised by department of M.Tech. Computer Science & Engineering at Abha Gaikwad-Patil College of Engineering for the students of M.Tech on 28th and 29th February 2012 in association with Tryst-2012, Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi and Roboopus 2012 and National Robotricks Championship on February 28 at 11 am at college premises . Dr. D.K.Agrawal, management council member RTMNU, Nagpur was invited as the chief guest and keynote speaker of the inauguration of workshop.

The convenor of the event was Prof. Pragati Patil work hard for the success of the workshop under the guidance of Principal.

I-ROBOTRICKS at Abha College on Feb 28

■ The college is the only zonal centre for this workshop in Vidarbha region. 150 engineering colleges have been invited from country

■ Staff Reporter

THE national workshop on I-ROBOTRICKS is being organised by Abha Gaikwad-Patil College of Engineering in association with Tryst-2012, Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi and RoboOpus-2012 and National Robotic Championship on February 28 at 11 am at college premises.

Stage-I consists of I-ROBOTRICKS. In stage-2, winners will be awarded certificate of merit, final rounds of stage-3 will be held between March 2 and 5 at IIT, Delhi. Winner of this final round will win The RoboOpus-2012 championship and will be awarded by Tryst-2012.

The college is the only zonal centre for this workshop in Vidarbha region. Nearly, 150 engineering and polytechnic colleges have been invited from across the country. Dr Ankush Mankar, Principal is the chairman for the event. Interested can contact Prof Pragati Patil-8805000935, co-convenor Prof Parul Bhanarkar-9689919711 or Co-ordinator Prof Pradeep Mitra-8149792670.